District Home Demonstration Week Observed

District meetings for home demonstration club members have been scheduled as part of Virginia's observance of National Home Demonstration Week, says Miss Maude E. Wilson, assistant director of the Extension Service at V. P. I.

The observance in Virginia will highlight the general theme "Family Responsibilities in Today's World," which will be supported county with the theme used for the parent Home Demonstration Conference, "Developing a Healthy Partnership."

Miss Wilson, Mrs. C. E. Myers, of Middle, president of the Virginia Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs, and Mrs. Richard S. Tilo, III, of Alexria, vice-president of the Federation, each will appear at the meetings during the week. Miss Wilson will discuss the White House conference and its application to rural living, and Mrs. Myers will discuss objectives and accomplishments of the Federation.

At some of the meetings other guest speakers are scheduled to appear.

The meetings, and guest speakers are:

May 1, Winchester, Mrs. Myers, and Miss Mary Louise Collins, Extension Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington. Miss Collins will discuss development of Extension work in Japan, where she recently spent a year as consultant.

May 1, Palmyra, Miss Wilson and Mrs. Ellis.

May 2, Waynesboro, Mrs. Myers.

May 2, Powhatan, Miss Wilson and Mrs. Ellis and Dr. Dabney Lancaster, president of Longwood College.

May 3, Radford, Mrs. Myers, and Miss Janet Cameron, Extension nutritionist, V. P. I. Miss Cameron, who recently returned from Germany, will discuss "Homemaking in Europe."

May 3, King William, Miss Wilson and Mrs. Ellis.

May 4, Independence, Mrs. Myers, and Mrs. Lydia Lytle, Extension Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Miss Lytle will make her remarks on the general theme of the conference.

May 4, Craddock High School in Norfolk County, Miss Wilson, and Mrs. Ellis. The Norfolk meeting also will feature a panel discussion with county home demonstration chairmen as participants.

Another feature of the Radford and Independence meetings will be an exhibit on "Water in the Home" by the Appalachian Electric Power Company.

Miss Wilson said county programs include limited indoor exhibition, and special programs. The county home agents will arrange details.

Support Asked For Cancer Crusade

"Support by farm organizations in this area is necessary to the success of the 1951 Cancer Crusade," Beth G. A. Gortney, campaign chairman of Appomattox County announced today.

The statement was made in connection with an announcement that Grange and Farm Bureau leaders had endorsed the Cancer Control drive.

"We know that many farm families in this region will again support the ACS campaign. But we would like to see it reaching all of them. Some of the major farm organizations nationally have endorsed the cancer crusade and have made outstanding contributions to the work

Clubs Seek Beautification Of Homes

The Country Home Demonstration Clubs are thinking of plans to carry out the Federal Council of Home and Community Beautification, in the spring season approaches we are all thinking of ways of improving our homes.

If you have been home owners for a number of years you have no doubt made improvements that you thought would be nice to have around your home. Having never owned a home it is dangerous to make improvements without the advice of an expert.

Have the location of your home changed in any way? Are there trees to be removed? Is there a need for more trees?

If the house is close to the road a direct walk from the road to the street is best. Or, if a driveway is necessary, it should be separate from the parking area. If your driveway is to be curved and one is not necessary, it should be. Do away with as many curves as you can.

Your entrance and drives should conform to the general character of your home and farm. A simple entrance well kept is better than an elaborate entrance that is in an unkept condition.

A lawn strip at the driveway entrance helps to make a better entrance and can be used as a foundation for small plants or architectural features.

Make your plants study their soil and only make plans for only those attractive and beautiful.

The Dedication of the McLean House was held one year ago this week.

Homemakers' Items

The average homemaker walks more than 3,000 miles every year doing housework, washes 26,270 dishes and prepares more than 1,056 meals for her family.

For these reasons, say home demonstration specialists at V. P. I., a convenient kitchen should have a high priority in home improvement plans.

Here are a few suggestions:

Casseroles, saucepans, seasoning, and other items used first at the range should be stored near the range.

Supplies and utensils used for water should be placed near the sink.

Glass and china used to serve food should be near the range to make food service easier.

Heavy items which are used frequently should be located as near the counter level as possible. Lighter items can be placed above or below the counter level.

Fresh fruit and vegetables should be stored as near the sink as possible. Perishables should be stored in the refrigerator.

Items of the same size and shape can be stacked. Items of graded size such as mixing bowls should not be stacked.

Locate the range and sink close together if possible. Trips between these two pieces of equipment are more numerous than any others in the kitchen.

Trout Season Opens Friday

Friday is the big day for thousands of fishermen throughout the Old Dominion. Official opening of the 1951 trout season is scheduled for 12:00 o'clock noon of April 20, and record crowds are expected on Virginia's famous trout streams.

According to I. T. Quinn, Executive Director of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, trout fishing has been steadily gaining in popularity with the sportsmen of the state, and in view of the increased stocking done by the Commission this year, and the large sizeed fish that were placed in the streams, its popularity should reach a new high.

Officials of the Commission are strongly appealing to all trout fishermen of the state to be extra careful about their conduct on Virginia streams this year. More and more trout streams are being closed to anglers because of the ansportamanlike conduct of a few thoughtless fishermen. Most of the streams that are stocked by the Commission outside of the national forests are on privately-owned land and it is only through the cooperation of the landowners that the Commission is able to carry on this program.

The season closes one hour after sunset on September 15. On intervening days, hours for fishing are from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset. Creel limit is set at 8 fish per day. There is no size limit, and all fish caught are to be retained as part of the daily creel limit.

Big Four Decisions now in 7th week of conference.

Growing favor for rearmament seen in Germany.

Greater exchange of students between nations is urged.

Exiles urged U. S. aid in fight on Soviet.

Turkey is now absorbing a mass of refugees.

Network Lists RMWC Choir

Randolph-Macon Woman's College choir, Henry Hallstrom director, will broadcast over the Mutual network, Sunday, April 29, from 12 to 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The program will be transcribed by WWOD, according to Don Jarvis, program director for this Mutual affiliate, and will be sent out directly from New York.

The following program is scheduled: Confitemini Domino, Christe Eleison, Regina Coeli Jubil, Joy My Lord, Batti Batti O Bel Masetto, Sanhian Folk Song, Over the Bil lows Over the Mountains, After Glow, Give Peace O God to the Nations Cry, and How Bright Appears the Morning Star.

Soloists on the program are Katherine Waller, Jane Avatt and Margaret Cooper. Dorothy Staples Leachman will be accompanist.

BE PREPARED

April is Railroad Month in the National Cub Scout Program.

During this month, over 800,000 Cub Scouts . . . 100,000 Den Leaders . . . and more than a million parents and other adults interested in the Cub Scout program, will place special emphasis on an earlier and a better understanding of American railroads — how they operate, how they serve the people in peace and war.

Cub Scouts, as future Boy Scouts, are trained for fulfillment of Scouting's famous motto — BE PREPARED. An understanding of the indispensable service performed by American railroads is of major importance in their preparation for the responsibilities of adult citizenship which they will inherit . . . for the railroads of America are indeed the lifeline of America.

Today, BE PREPARED is vital for all of us. The railroads themselves are and always have been among the first to accept this challenge . . . to BE PREPARED to serve, no matter what demands are placed upon them in peacetime or in time of emergency. The Norfolk and Western alone has spent and authorized more than $157,000,000 since World War II for improvements all over the railroad . . . to BE PREPARED.

The nation is proud of its Cub Scouts and the splendid things they stand for. The Norfolk and Western salutes them for Railroad Month and their other excellent programs, which are training them to grow up as more capable leaders and finer American citizens.
